MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. BELMONT
MR. DE LOACH

The Attorney General called and said he wanted to check two things with me. One, we have never put a tap in recent times on Joe Alsop's phone. I said no.

Two, there was another story that [redacted] was being shadowed in connection with a story he had gotten about a comptroller's report on something in the Far East, some scandal in the Far East. He asked if the Bureau had been surveilling [redacted] I answered that I would check that; that I thought not because they would certainly clear a matter like that with me.

I have instructed Mr. Belmont to check on both these matters and advise me.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: JOSEPH ALSOP
INFORMATION CONCERNING PROPOSED TRAVEL TO HONG KONG AND VIETNAM

Reference is made to the memorandum to Mr. Tolson from Mr. DeLoach dated 3/15/66, concerning the proposed travel to Hong Kong and Vietnam of Joseph Alsop, the newspaper columnist.

On 3/16/66, it was determined through a search of the records of the Passport Office, Department of State, that Joseph Wright Alsop was last issued passport number D025263 at Washington, D. C., on 1/31/63. This passport was renewed at Washington, D. C. in December, 1965, and will expire 1/31/68. This passport is valid for travel to all countries except Albania, Cuba, and those portions of China, Korea and Vietnam under communist control. The renewal application contained no information concerning proposed travel plans.

It has been determined that no visa is required for Hong Kong for a stay up to seven days if the traveler has a valid passport and evidence of continued travel, such as an airplane ticket. For stays over seven days and up to three months, the British Government issues a visa.

(U) In light of the above information it is clear that [neither State Department nor the British would necessarily be aware of Alsop's travel intentions.] (S)

(U) ACTION: In view of developments we intend to discreetly contact available sources to see if any of them are in a position to know or learn of Alsop's travel itinerary prior to his departure.

SUBJECT: INTERVIEW WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
NOVEMBER 30, 1967 KATZENBACH

The Attorney General asked me to come to his office at 12:00 noon today.

The first subject he discussed was the fact that Joseph Alsop, the columnist, had been in to see him recently. Alsop told the Attorney General that he felt the FBI had not been successful in infiltrating the Ku Klux Klan or extremist agitators sufficiently. He claimed that the FBI should be taken out of this field and that a "task force" should replace the FBI. The Attorney General stated he rebelled violently at this suggestion and told Alsop the FBI has been doing an excellent job in this regard and that this Bureau had furnished voluminous reports concerning accomplishments in this field. The Attorney General stated that as a result of Alsop's allegations, he thought perhaps it might be a good idea to have the press media print several articles concerning FBI accomplishments along this line.

I went over briefly with the Attorney General our many accomplishments in this category, also the fact that the press media had printed hundreds of articles concerning such matters. I told him Alsop had never liked the FBI. I also briefed him generally concerning Alsop's background and the fact that he was obviously not a person to be trusted.

At the specific request of Assistant AG Fred Vinson, the Director met with Vinson at 3:30 p.m., 3/16/66, in his office. Pursuant to Vinson's request, and at the Director's instruction, I also attended the meeting.

Mr. Vinson opened the discussion by stating that he felt there was a matter which needed clearing up. At this point he handed the Director a 1½-page memorandum concerning his previous visit to the Director's office on 3/9/66, and referring to the visit which Mr. Gale and I paid to his office on 3/11/66. Vinson stated that this memorandum will reflect for the record that he did not imply any criticism against the FBI, and that the Criminal Division of the Department desires to continue receiving intelligence reports on organized crime.

The Director stated there was no misunderstanding whatsoever. The Director quoted Vinson as having previously stated that he spent a great deal of time reading intelligence reports which had been received from the FBI and that he, Vinson, had felt perhaps the FBI was wasting time in doing so much intelligence-type investigations, rather than the prosecutive type. The Director stated that upon Vinson's departure he had sent for Mr. Gale and me and had expressed his concern in no uncertain terms, inasmuch as this matter is under our supervision. The Director stated he instructed Gale and me to determine whether an investigative waste of time was involved.

Vinson indicated he did not recall telling the Director previously that the reading of voluminous intelligence-type reports was a waste of time. The Director replied that Vinson had certainly implied that this was a waste of time, whether or not he had so stated specifically. The Director indicated to seemed strange that [redacted] of the Department had asked for additional intelligence-type reports, whereas Vinson had intimated he was getting too many.

Vinson stated he wanted to make it clear that he was no expert in the field of investigations and therefore it would be wrong for him to pass judgment on the FBI's work in the field of organized crime. The Director stated he agreed with this assertion. The Director also stated that nevertheless he would certainly curtail the sending of intelligence-type reports to the Department if Vinson had actually meant this. Vinson stated that by no stretch of the imagination had he meant to imply this.

I gave Vinson a brief rundown on the actual requests made by [redacted] and explained to Vinson the fact that the preparation of crime surveys, as we did many years ago, would definitely be a waste of time and entirely duplicative of our efforts today.

The Director asked Vinson bluntly if he "wanted the FBI to cut down on intelligence-type reports" to "just state our guidelines." Vinson stated he had no guidelines. The Director then indicated it would be impossible to make criminal-type cases unless we first conducted intelligence-type investigations. Vinson agreed.

Vinson referred to the last paragraph of his memorandum wherein he stated that the conference held in his office with Mr. Gale and me ended on an "acrimonious" note. He stated he specifically wanted to call this to Mr. Hoover's attention. The Director turned to me and asked what this meant. I stated whenever any individual comes to the Director of the FBI and makes erroneous allegations concerning work under my supervision I felt that I have the right to defend myself and explain the true facts of the matter. I stated this was done in Vinson's office and no punches were pulled. I also stated that I resented deeply the fact that Vinson would make a complaint based on a lack of knowledge.

The Director turned to Vinson and held up the memorandum that Vinson had presented to him. The Director stated "Do you now plan to stick to the contents of this memorandum, or do you wish to make any further changes?" Vinson replied that the memorandum was self-explanatory and he had no changes to make whatsoever. He stated he wished to reiterate once again that that Leary had a lot to learn, particularly about police review boards. The Director also referred to Mayor Lindsay of New York and referred to Lindsay's participation in handling the Jencks case before the Supreme Court.

Vinson stated that the Department had recently had trouble in connection with the Jencks decision, inasmuch as a judge had asked that all witnesses be produced in one mail fraud case and in one narcotics case. He stated that in the mail fraud case one of the witnesses had been killed. Under the Jencks rule the judge took exception to this fact. Vinson indicated that Judge Luther Youngdahl was typical of many judges today in that he insisted upon all statements and all witnesses being produced in cases which came before him. There followed a brief discussion concerning Judges Youngdahl and Bazelon and their liberal tendencies in reversing the convictions of the lower courts.

The Director referred once again to the so-called "misunderstanding" as Vinson had termed his previous meeting. The Director stated he wanted to make it quite clear to Mr. Vinson that intelligence-type investigations in the field of organized crime in many cases resulted in a complete disruption of gangsterism in various cities, particularly Chicago.

I told Vinson that he should realize that many intelligence-type investigations also often result in Federal prosecutions and that a sampling of cases could be quoted to him, if necessary. He stated he agreed and this would not be necessary.

Vinson asked the Director if he could discuss the Hoffa case. The Director asked him what he had in mind. Vinson stated when he had called upon the Director on 3/9/66 the Director had made it quite clear to him that he abhorred "limited" type investigations. The Director stated this was absolutely correct and that he had learned his lesson in the Kansas City vote fraud cases many years ago. The Director told Vinson that in instances when the Department specifically limited its request for investigation, he (the Director) had issued instructions to the FBI to reply to the Department that the investigation would be limited in accordance with the Department's request.

he had not meant to be critical of the FBI but, to the contrary, had merely wanted to make the suggestion that the FBI might desire to occasionally stop and survey its criminal investigative work to see if too much time was not being spent on merely the accumulation of intelligence. The Director very patiently pointed out that it would be impossible to give the Department information of a prosecutive nature unless at first intelligence-type investigations were carried out. The Director exhibited to Vinson a chart concerning the huge amount of intelligence information given to Chicago law enforcement authorities which has enabled those individuals to practically wreck gambling interests in that city.

Vinson stated that he knew of the success of the FBI's drive in Chicago; however, he did want to state that he thought the Chief of Police in Chicago was a good man. The Director replied that O. W. Wilson was nothing but a drunk and had proven this on many occasions.

The Director gave Vinson a detailed explanation of the success of the FBI's work in Chicago and Las Vegas. The Director summarized inspections, SAC conferences, and the daily statistics that are given him, which all serve as a yardstick to measure the effectiveness of our work not only in the field of organized crime but in all other types of FBI investigations. The Director showed Vinson the monthly chart that he receives which reflects the statistics of all offices.

Vinson stated again that he wanted to reiterate that he did not mean to be critical in making his original suggestion. He stated this was a suggestion, pure and simple, and that he hoped the Director did not feel that he had been critical. The Director replied that the successes of the FBI spoke for themselves and he felt that Vinson now understood that the FBI constantly surveyed its work.

Vinson stated that the Director had indicated that C. W. Wilson in Chicago was not a good chief of police, but that he, Vinson, had heard that Parker in Los Angeles was a good man. The Director quickly told Vinson of Parker's eccentricities, his craze for publicity, and Parker's refusal to cooperate with the FBI in civil rights investigations. The Director spoke of Commissioner Leary of New York, and indicated

Vinson stated he recognized this feeling on the part of the Director and therefore when an attorney in his division had written a lengthy, detailed and specific-type memorandum asking the FBI to conduct a specific investigation he, Vinson, had refused to send this memorandum to the FBI because he felt it was not in accordance with the Director's wishes. Vinson stated he had rewritten this memorandum, leaving the field completely open to the FBI to conduct whatever type investigation we felt was needed. Vinson stated he thought he had complied with the Director's wishes in this regard,

I told Vinson that his undated memorandum, which he handed to the Director on 3/9/66, had been completely vague and nonspecific. It was mentioned that he had implied in his memorandum that we should limit our investigation to [redacted] however, his memorandum had said nothing regarding possible interviews with [redacted] in Chicago. He was told the memorandum had not referred in any manner to investigation or interrogation of these individuals.

I also told Vinson that he should realize that thus far in the Hoffa case his division had asked for only "limited" investigation. It was mentioned that the FBI had found [redacted] for the Department, yet the Department had seen fit to send its own attorneys to interrogate [redacted] Consequently the FBI was in no position to realize exactly what had been said to [redacted] other than that information furnished on the record. Vinson agreed.

I further told Vinson that there was a matter of "entrapment" to be considered. Vinson stated he could not understand how we could get this opinion. It was mentioned that [redacted]

[redacted] The example was given that if [redacted] makes overtures to [redacted] while dealing with the FBI, then possibly there could be either a semblance of entrapment or possibly such an act might disrupt previous actions taken by the Department in its investigation. Vinson replied that he still couldn't understand how this might represent entrapment. I added that there was a continuing grand jury investigation and presumably a continuing investigation on the part of the Department in this matter; consequently there not only was a chance of entrapment but also a good opportunity of letting wires crossed. Vinson was told that presumably [redacted] did

The Director stated he agreed and that he further wanted to point out that there were serious gaps in the various interrogations handled by a Departmental attorney. Vinson stated he agreed; however, he had sent []

[] The Director stated that might be true; however, []

[] Vinson stated he did not know this

The Director stated it was always unwise to repeat or duplicate interrogations. He stated the questions that obviously should have been asked the first time will now have to be asked during a second interrogation by FBI agents. Vinson replied that he wanted to state, in all fairness to Attorney [] that [] had apparently done a good job

Vinson stated that there had been a problem related to [] which related to [] He stated [] who was fearful of [] would undoubtedly have lied on the witness stand; consequently, great damage would have resulted to the Hoffa case.

The Director stated that he wanted to make quite clear that there appeared to be activities of Departmental attorneys in this matter of which the FBI was completely unaware. Vinson replied that he felt that Attorney [] had kept the Special Agents in Chattanooga constantly advised of his activities relative to the Hoffa case.

At this point the Director instructed me to check with the SAC at Knoxville to ascertain if [] had been consulted with our agents and if those agents had made these conversations a matter of record. (Mr. Rosen is handling this matter.)

The Director turned to Vinson and stated that our principal concern in handling the investigation in this matter was the fact that the FBI might later be accused of "rocking the boat" inasmuch as it was wrong for two bodies to be handling one investigation. The Director also stated that it frankly was not clear in his mind whether Vinson had requested us to handle this particular phase of the Hoffa case as the beginning or ending of an investigation. The Director indicated former Special Assistant to Bobby Kennedy, William Sheridan, had definitely operated in an independent manner relative to investigations and that the FBI to this day is not aware of some of the things that he did. The Director indicated that we have received a number of allegations that Sheridan might have participated in wiretapping in handling the Hoffa case. The Director added that Senator Edward Long probably would call Sheridan as a witness in future hearings. Vinson seemed to be somewhat taken aback by this statement.

Vinson told the Director that the FBI had done a massive and speedy job in handling the Hoffa investigation in Chattanooga, particularly after Hoffa had filed various affidavits. The Director stated he felt our agents had done a good job on this phase of the investigation; however, we had realized that the judge in Chattanooga was in a touchy position and the matter needed clearing up. Vinson agreed.

The Director stated that false allegations always should be jumped on fast and cleared up. He referred to the [redacted] case wherein 17 different defendants in a case had made critical allegations concerning [redacted] relative to bribery and homosexuality. The Director also mentioned the Senator Tom Dodd case in which Jack Anderson and Drew Pearson had made general allegations concerning Senator Dodd yet had not been specific.

Vinson inquired of the Director whether the FBI would investigate the theft of the documents from Senator Dodd's office. The Director replied that this investigation would begin immediately upon the transfer of the documents held by Jack Anderson to the Department. The Director stated this would be on Friday, 3/18/66.

Vinson made reference to a call received by [redacted] [redacted] last Saturday, 3/12/66, in which a hoodlum by the name of [redacted] had obtained an appointment with [redacted] on Saturday night and had told him that there was a close tie-in between [redacted] and [redacted]. Vinson also stated that this hoodlum had indicated that there were pictures of Senator Tom Dodd with [redacted].

or representatives of his division. While he seemed amenable in the Director's office, he still insisted that his original remarks were "misunderstood" which they were not. He now realizes he is absolutely wrong and wishes to crawl out of the situation. He will, however, in the future seek instances in which he can embarrass the FBI and its representatives.

Mr. Rosen will immediately check with the Knoxville Office relative to conferences held by FBI agents with Attorney [redacted] to make certain that the record is complete in this regard.

b7c

I thoroughly concur with DeLoach. Vinson is certainly no real friend of J.B.P. & is looking for "nit picking." He is an ardent supporter of Bobby Kennedy. On the previous conference with me I mentioned Kennedy's lying about use of minor phones in the state of 2 memos which he had at the time Vinson stated in conversation to Kennedy he might not have heard the true meaning of electronic devices as he is ignorant of the various kinds of Vinson asked if he could once again bring up the Hoffa matter. The Director stated he presumed Vinson wanted a full investigation in this matter and not the "limited type" as implied in Vinson's undated memorandum. Vinson stated this was correct. Vinson then expressed appreciation for the Director having seen him, and departed.

In the hallway, Vinson turned to me and stated perhaps he should do something to clear up the Hoffa request. I told him he should feel free to send over further memoranda if he so desired. However, he should indicate any sensitive areas in which the Department had already participated. I told him also that he should clear up the question of whether [redacted] were to be interviewed. He stated he would do this.

Vinson next walked with me down the hallway and upon reaching my office came in briefly. He stated he wanted to talk to me alone. He mentioned that he could have more adequately explained to the Director what he had meant by the meeting with Mr. Gale and me ending on an "acrimonious" note. He stated what he had reference to was the fact that I had made the statement, "horse manure," to him during the conversation in his office. He indicated he resented this and that I should not have made such a statement to him.

I replied that I had clearly meant what I said and if he resented this statement perhaps he would think twice before coming over to see the Director and lodging false allegations against the work of the FBI. It was mentioned that at any time in the future when he made statements of this nature I would feel free to again come over to his office and straighten him out in no uncertain terms. He then turned around and left my office.

ACTION:

Vinson has a "chip" on his shoulder and we will have to be most meticulous in dealing with him in the future. We should be most careful in making a matter of record any conversation, discussion or conference we have with Vinson

Mr. Tolson

The Director spoke once again of false allegations regarding [redacted] and other prostitutes of wide publicity. The Director indicated that there had, of course, been some truth to the fact that a small number of senators had involved themselves with prostitutes and that the late President Kennedy had on one occasion asked the Director to see Senators Dirksen and Mansfield relative to this matter.

b7C

Vinson stated that the Attorney General, on the morning of 3/16/66, had requested him to summarize all matters relative to the Canadian hoodlum and forward this information to the FBI so that we, in turn, could give it to [redacted]. The Director stated we would handle this matter.

b7D

The Director referred to the investigation by [redacted]

Vinson stated Stuart Alsop planned to have an article in this week's edition of the Saturday Evening Post relative to his book on immorality. The Director replied that he felt certain that Joe Alsop would not be writing on immorality, inasmuch as he would be the last person to throw mud regarding homosexuality or sex offenses. The Director indicated that [redacted]

b7D
b7E

[redacted] The Director also briefly mentioned that Joe Alsop, according to the President, planned to make a trip in the near future to Hong Kong and Vietnam so that he could obtain up to date information. The Director stated that Alsop was complaining of the fact that he could not obtain classified information from his usual sources at the White House or in other places.

Vinson stated his letter to the Director concerning the Canadian matter, mentioned above, would also contain a request that the FBI maintain a "loose watch" on [redacted]

[redacted] Vinson stated he did not mean for this to be a close surveillance or a daily watch but that he hoped that the FBI could be constantly aware of [redacted] whereabouts. The Director made no commitment in this regard.

While discussing other matters with the President at 8 p.m., 3/14/66 (he called concerning the Western Union incident at Austin, Texas), he stated he was very concerned about the actions of Iron Curtain embassies in Washington, D. C.] (S)

The President indicated that he wanted the Director advised that the FBI should constantly keep abreast of the actions of representatives of these embassies in making contact with senators and congressmen and any citizens of a prominent nature. The President indicated that he strongly felt that much of the protest concerning his Vietnam policies, particularly the hearings in the Senate, had been generated by the Soviet embassy. (S)

The President stated that the FBI should use any method or device whatsoever to keep him advised as to the identity and purpose of visits paid by legislators and other prominent U.S. citizens to Iron Curtain embassies. He stated he wanted to reiterate that the FBI should attempt any method in order to ascertain such information. (S)

The President continued that he would like for the Director to have prepared a chronological study, beginning in July 1964 and continuing up to the present time, of all legislators (meaning senators and congressmen) who have called at the Russian Embassy. He stated he felt such a study will clearly reflect that Senators Fulbright and Morse have been in constant contact with the Russian Embassy. (S)

The President stated that he was also troubled about the actions of Joseph Alsop, the syndicated columnist. He mentioned that Alsop has been "bitching" about the fact that he cannot receive any classified information from the White House or the Pentagon. Alsop, therefore, plans to journey to Hong Kong and from there to Vietnam, so that he can obtain information firsthand about the war in Vietnam. The President added that Alsop probably wants to stop over in Hong Kong so that he can visit with some of his "queer" boyfriends. He mentioned that Alsop probably has a large amount of secret documents on hand and it would be wrong for him to reveal the contents of these documents to the Russians or Red Chinese. The President indicated that the FBI should keep a very close check on Joseph Alsop insofar as contacts with Iron Curtain representatives are concerned. (S)

The President stated we should carefully check and find out when Alsop planned to go to Hong Kong and if we had a man there at the time we should keep abreast of Alsop's movements. I told the President this would be most difficult, in view of the fact that the FBI had specifically promised the British that our representative would not be operational. The President stated nevertheless perhaps we could check Alsop through other sources.

BACKGROUND:

Mr. Vinson, a local attorney, has been asked to handle a matter for Joseph W. Alsop of Washington, D. C. Before doing so, Mr. Vinson would like to see the Director and Mr. Hoover has indicated that he will see Mr. Vinson at 10:00 a.m., Thursday, 10/29/70. This meeting has been confirmed. A separate memorandum is being submitted on Mr. Alsop.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

Fred Moore Vinson, Jr., was born in Louisa, Kentucky, on 4/3/25. He received an AB degree from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia, in 1948, and an LL. B. degree in 1951 from this same school. He served in the U.S. Army Air Force from 1943 to 1946, and currently resides in Washington, D. C., where he is a law partner in the firm of Reasoner, Davis and Vinson.

At the request of the White House, we conducted a Special Inquiry on Vinson in December, 1960 (no position mentioned), which was highly favorable. Our files also revealed at that time that the Director had had prior friendly correspondence with Mr. Vinson's father, former Chief Justice, U.S. Supreme Court, congratulating him on different occasions concerning various appointments he had received. On 9/8/53, the Director sent a letter of condolence to Mrs. Vinson at the time of the death of the Chief Justice.

In March, 1965, at the request of the Department, we conducted an applicant-type investigation on Mr. Vinson in connection with his subsequent appointment as an Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Division. This investigation was also favorable, and the Director wrote him a congratulatory letter on 3/25/65 on this appointment. Subsequently, on 6/29/69 Mr. Vinson's wife and two sons were conducted on a special tour of the Bureau.

M. A. Jones to Bishop memo
RE: FRED M. VINSON, JR.

At the request of Mr. Vinson, the Director and Mr. DeLoach visited Vinson's office on 3/16/66, after Vinson had previously visited the Director's Office on 3/9/66. This meeting was in connection with Vinson's criticism of the FBI's Criminal Intelligence Program. He made erroneous and irresponsible statements regarding this program and was set straight by the Director and Mr. DeLoach. One of Vinson's main criticisms was that he felt that the FBI was wasting time in doing so much intelligence-type investigations, rather than the prosecutive type. The Director forcefully instructed Vinson that it would be impossible to make criminal-type cases unless we first conduct intelligence-type investigations, and Vinson agreed. In his memorandum to Mr. Tolson dated 3/17/66 summarizing this meeting of the Director, Vinson and DeLoach, Mr. DeLoach noted that Vinson had a "chip" on his shoulder and that we should be most meticulous in dealing with him in the future. The Director noted, "I thoroughly concur with DeLoach. Vinson is certainly no real friend of the FBI and is looking for 'nit picking.' He is an ardent apologist for Bobby Kennedy. In the previous conference with me I mentioned Kennedy's lying about use of microphones in the face of two memos which he had approved. Vinson stated in fairness to Kennedy he might not have known the true meaning of electronic devices as he, Vinson, didn't know the various kinds. I told Vinson Kennedy couldn't advance any such alibi in view of his service with the McClellan Committee. H"

In C. D. DeLoach to Mr. Gale memorandum dated 2/8/68, concerning Vinson's criticizing us regarding our alleged lack of cooperation with the Department's Task Force in Buffalo, New York, it was noted that Vinson never missed a chance to make snide and derogatory remarks, and has always taken up the cudgel on behalf of the Task Force. Our files also reveal that Vinson traveled to London for extradition proceedings regarding James Earl Ray.

The files of the Director's Office reveal no additional pertinent data concerning Vinson and no arrest record located identifiable with him. There is no indication he has previously received an autographed photograph of Mr. Hoover.

Reference is made to memorandum of M. A. Jones to Bishop dated 10/29/70, captioned as above which stated that the Director has instructed that an anonymous communication made available by [REDACTED] be afforded an examination by the Document Section of the FBI Laboratory. (U) (S)

The one-page carbon copy typewritten letter was searched through the appropriate sections of both the Anonymous Letter File and the National Security File without effecting an identification with any of the materials contained therein. (U) (S)

This letter contains the watermark "EAGLE A TROJAN BOND 25% COTTON FIBER USA." This watermark is the property of the Brown Company, 10 Eagle-A Avenue, Holyoke, Massachusetts 01040. (U) (S)

Due to the limitations imposed by the poor quality of the carbon specimen submitted as well as the limited number of numerals used it was not possible to identify the manufacturer of this pica style type spaced 10 characters to the horizontal inch. (U) (S)

No indented writing or other significant feature was observed which would indicate the source of this material. (U) (S)

RECOMMENDATION: That this memorandum be referred to the Crime Records Division for appropriate handling. REC-45 100-3-4 1-312

Reference is made to the memorandum of Mr. M. A. Jones to Mr. Bishop dated 11/9/70 in which the Director approved the examination of an anonymous letter made available by

The original typewritten letter submitted with the above memorandum was found to be the original of the carbon copy typewritten letter previously examined in the Laboratory on 11/2/70. It was noted that the original letter contains the same watermark as the carbon copy. The typewriting on the original letter is a Ransmeyer pica style of type spaced ten letters to the inch. This type is manufactured in West Germany by a company which is the world's largest manufacturer of typewriter type. It is used on approximately 59 different brand name typewriters.

No indented writings or other significant features were noted which would indicate the source of the original letter.

The original letter has been photographed and is attached hereto.

RECOMMENDATION: That this memorandum be referred to the Crime Records Division for appropriate handling.
